INTENSIVE ENGLISH LANGUAGE TRAINING (FOR SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS & TEACHERS OF SUBJECTS OTHER THAN ENGLISH)

FULL DESCRIPTION OF TRAINING CONTENT

This course is for teachers of subjects other than English and those who work in an administrative or managerial role in an educational institution (primary, secondary or tertiary sector).

PREPARATION

All participants complete a pre-registration form with the following information:

- Current role and responsibilities
- Previous professional development
- Reasons for choosing the course
- English language level

An optional four week e-learning phase precedes the two week course at Anglolang. This focuses on language based activities. This part of the course is delivered via the Internet and is conducted at the students' own pace. A chat room and message board facility enable course participants to meet and share ideas before the classroom based phase of the course begins. E-learning feedback from Anglolang tutors is provided on a one-to-one basis. A profile (including a photo) of each participant and trainer is also provided.

Before arriving in Scarborough, participants receive details of their accommodation. If this is a homestay provider, a host description is provided.

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course participants will have developed greater English proficiency. They will have:

- Increased confidence when communicating in English
- Developed a wider range of vocabulary in English
- Increased knowledge of British culture and intercultural awareness
- Had an opportunity to share ideas and experiences
- Created a network of educational contacts within Europe

METHODOLOGY

This course uses a wide variety of communicative activities to encourage learning by all participants. Participants will take part in seminars, workshops, lectures, open discussions and an external visit (e.g. a school, college or training and enterprise organization) The exact content of the course is negotiated before and throughout the course to take into account the specific needs and developing interests of each group. Care is taken to allow equal participation by all, including those who may be less confident in English.
